Testimonials

“We entrusted the Hills electrical team with our Centennial Park new build home and the experience has been excellent.

Hills carried out the design, build and commission of the electrical, home automation, security, outdoor lighting and AV packages. We worked with the Hills team to create a design and lighting product selection to suit the architectural aesthetics and the project budget, and the process worked extremely well. The Hills electricians and automation specialists were hardworking and very professional tradesmen and tradeswomen. They were the standout trade onsite and very flexible when it came to accommodating changes and improvements along the journey of our build. We would recommend Hills to anyone approaching a new build or renovation.”

Joel De Stoop

I never knew electricals and home automations could change my life! The service I received was timely, professional at all times and outstanding. The team were great and worked really well together in creating the most luxurious space for me. I can't recommend them highly enough. This company is Top End!

Bonus - No cables anywhere to be seen in my home. Always 5 stars!

Vandana Katyal

Not only do I think that Hills Electrical are good, I think they are one of the best I've dealt with. Their knowledge and experience are exceptional & second to none. Communication was open, and they are very reliable. Highly Recommend!
